Financial
Prevailing forms of modern economic development are optimized to convert our primary forms of capital, or wealth, into financial capital.
How do we evolve our business models to not only survive, but to thrive & flourish - and in doing so, actively modify our prevailing global economic paradigm?

Financial
Regenerative Enterprise models of economic development redirect financial capital flows back towards cultivating our primary forms of capital, which forms the basis of human well-being (true wealth).
